

Inventory

Acc.10421

Aitken Dott

National Library of Scotland
Manuscripts Division
George IV Bridge
Edinburgh
EH1 1EW
Tel: 0131-466 2812
Fax: 0131-466 2811
E-mail: manuscripts@nls.uk

© Trustees of the National Library of Scotland

Papers of the firm of Aitken Dott and Son, fine art dealers in Edinburgh.

- 1-2. Lists of stock of pictures, ca. 1930.
3. 'Receipts, Prices, etc', being a notebook of framing work done by the firm, ca. 1875, with further notes on framing techniques and designs, gilding, glues, etc, and notes about the organisation of the firm in the hand of P M Dott, ca. 1980.
4. 'Rules relative to the system of Profit Sharing', 1894, set out by P M Dott.
5. Notes by P M Dott on pictures seen in the Tate and National Galleries, 1927.
6. Notebook of the dates of artists, compiled ca. 1955.
7. Correspondence of the firm, mainly relating to exhibitions, 1894, 1898, 1908, 1922-6, 1934-5, 1945-8, n.d.
8. Miscellaneous papers, 1880 – ca. 1950, including accounts, legal papers, and copperplates for the firm's letterheads.