The missionary archive of George Stewart McIntosh and Janet McIntosh, c. 1964-1993, consisting of correspondence, photographs and papers relating to their work and lives as Christian missionaries in Peru and Bolivia, South America. A large proportion of the archive relates to George Stewart McIntosh's writings on some of the numerous areas in which he was working, including Latin American Church history, cultural anthropology, missiology and Bible institutes, as well as on aspects of the social and political environment in South America from a Christian perspective. A sequential numbering system has been imposed on this collection, but otherwise it has been arranged and described by the depositors. The collection includes a biography of George Stewart McIntosh (GSM) and Janet McIntosh (JM), together with a detailed item level listing of the collection, both of which were prepared by the depositors; a printed copy of these can be found in the collection in folder 1 or at: <http://www.nls.uk/catalogues/online/cnmi/inventories/acc12903-listing.pdf>
