

Inventory

Acc.11219

Lines Review

National Library of Scotland
Manuscripts Division
George IV Bridge
Edinburgh
EH1 1EW
Tel: 0131-466 2812
Fax: 0131-466 2811
E-mail: manuscripts@nls.uk

© Trustees of the National Library of Scotland

Correspondence, verse, articles, reviews and other related papers of and concerning Lines Review, 1990–1995.

Lines Review is a literary magazine founded in 1952 by Callum Macdonald. The last issue, edited by Tessa Ransford, was published in 1998. Lines Review has published poets such as Sydney Goodsir Smith and Iain Crichton Smith and has proved to be a starting point for many young Scottish poets.

See also Acc.8851, 10207, 11727, 11895.

See also Scottish poetry index: an index to poetry and poetry-related material in Scottish literary magazines, 1952 – Vol. 3, Lines review 1952 – 1992/compiled by the Scottish Poetry Library.

Deposited, 1995.

1. Editorial correspondence, 1990–1993. Poets represented include Eddie Flintoff, Gavin Bowd, and Hayden Murphy.
2. General correspondence relating to the 40th anniversary celebration and issue no.120, 1990–1992. SPLA newsletter no.18.
3. General correspondence, 1992–1994, relating to issue nos.125–132. Correspondence between Alastair Reid and Tessa Ransford concerning a textual error. Poets represented include John Kliphan, Janet Paisley, Gavin Ewart, Jenni Daiches, Robin Fulton, a collection of poems by Alan Riach and a review by Juan Luis Campos.
4. General correspondence, 1992–1994. Included are an article by Alan Riach and a review by Ian Campbell.
5. General correspondence, 1993–1994. Included are translations of verse by Svetlana Zagatova, Anna Barkova, and biographical notices of Russian poets. Biographical notice of Gerry Cambridge written by George Mackay Brown.
6. General correspondence, 1994, relating to issue no.131. Poets represented include Brian Johnstone.
7. Editorial correspondence, 1994–1995, relating to issue no.132. Poets represented include James Aitchison and Peter Snow.