Inventory

Acc.11789

Brora Coal Mine, Sutherland
Minute book of the Brora Branch of the National Union of Mineworkers, Scottish Area, 1954-61, and photocopies of cuttings and other documents relating to the Ross Colliery, Brora, the most northerly deep coal mine in the British Isles.

3. Photocopies of cuttings from The Northern Times, 1973, relating to the imminent closure of the pit: and from The Press and Journal, 1 October 1988, on the same subject.

Item 1 presented by, and 2-3 copied with the permission of Joe Bokas Esq., Brora, Sutherland (through the good offices of Ian MacDougall, Secretary, Scottish Working Peoples’ History Trust).