

Inventory

Acc.12354

Papers of
Dr Neil Ross CBE, DD, D Litt (1873-1943)

National Library of Scotland
Manuscripts Division
George IV Bridge
Edinburgh
EH1 1EW
Tel: 0131-466 2812
Fax: 0131-466 2811
E-mail: manuscripts@nls.uk

© Trustees of the National Library of Scotland

Papers of Dr Neil Ross CBE, DD, DLitt (1873-1943)

Dr Ross was Minister of Laggan, Inverness-shire and a noted Gaelic scholar. He served for a time as President of An Comunn Gaidhealach, and as editor of An Ghaidheal, as well as being a county councilor.

12 cms.

Donated by Dr Ross's family, 2004 and 2005

1. Material relating to his life, education and publications.
2. Miscellaneous prose works, talks, lectures and correspondence.
3. Miscellaneous poetical works, mostly in Gaelic.
4. Photostats of part of the manuscript of the poem "Armageddon".
5. English translation of part of "Armageddon".
6. Miscellaneous earlier nineteenth century material, including: four letters, 1838-1839, from Donald Macpherson to the Earl of Aboyne; a sermon (1824-37) and ordination discourse (January 1835) of Robert Macgregor, Minister of Kilmuir; and a photograph (c1855?) of the piper Kenneth MacCrimmon.