These papers were deposited by the owner, George Watson's College, Colinton Road, Edinburgh EH10 5EG in 2006. For the main bulk of Stewart Lockhart papers, see Acc.4138. The listing of Acc.12695 was done by Mr Michael Gill to whom thanks are due.

No material from the collection can be reproduced without permission of the Trustees of George Watson's College, Colinton Road, Edinburgh EH10 5EG. Enquiries in the first instance on copies should be made to the Curator, Stewart Lockhart Collection, at that address.

Historical note:

Sir James Stewart Lockhart (1858-1937) was a distinguished colonial official in China and a collector. His first appointments were in Hong Kong, from 1882, but in 1902 he was appointed first civil commissioner of Weihaiwei, in north-east China. He retired in 1921. His collections were given to George Watson's College in Edinburgh, his old school, in 1967 by his daughter Mary (Mrs Betty Joel), a noted interior designer.
