These papers were deposited by the owner, George Watson's College, Colinton Road, Edinburgh EH10 5EG in 1966. The contents of Acc.4138/1(h), Acc.4138/71 to Acc.4138/74, and part of Acc.4138/75 were later removed by the owner, and deposited at the Scottish National Portrait Gallery (Scottish National Photographic Collection).

For further Stewart Lockhart papers, see Acc.12695.

The detailed listing of Acc.4138/1 to Acc.4138/18 was done by Stewart Lockhart's biographer, Shiona Airlie, as was the index to correspondents in this section (see Acc.4138/79), to whom thanks are due.

Historical note:

Sir James Stewart Lockhart (1858-1937) was a distinguished colonial official in China and a collector. His first appointments were in Hong Kong, from 1882, but in 1902 he was appointed first civil commissioner of Weihaiwei, in north-east China. He retired in 1921. His collections were given to George Watson's College in Edinburgh, his old school, in 1967 by his daughter Mary (Mrs Betty Joel).

Extent: 8.63m.

(Please note that there is an index of correspondents represented in Acc.4138/1 to Acc.4138/18 in Acc.4138/79)
