

Inventory

Acc.4752

Graham Cochrane Welsh MA, LLB, FSAScot

National Library of Scotland
Manuscripts Division
George IV Bridge
Edinburgh
EH1 1EW
Tel: 0131-466 2812
Fax: 0131-466 2811
E-mail: manuscripts@nls.uk

© Trustees of the National Library of Scotland

Draft typescript of Keith and its Lairds by Graham Cochrane Welsh, MA, LLB, FSAScot, with related notes and photostats.

1. Draft typescript of Part I, dealing with the history of Milton of Keith. The text has extensive manuscript additions and corrections by the author. First published in the Banffshire Herald in instalments from 9 Feb to 30 March, 1957. With six photostats of letters and bonds quoted in the text.
2. Draft typescript of parts II and III, on Kirkton of Keith, and Keith burgh, first published in Banffshire Herald 6 April to 15 June, 1957, with photostat of a charter of the papal legates Alexander Kyd and James Nathan, 1554, and two photographs of old parish kirk of Keith.
3. Author's working notes for Part I.
4. Further series of notes for Part I.
5. Working notes for Part II.
6. Working notes, Part III.
7. Correspondence: research enquiries by author, 1950.
8. Folder of photostats and photographs. 36 items + notes.
9. Author's certificate of admission to the Society of Antiquaries of Scotland 10 April 1950.
10. Broken seal, probably of the chapter of Moray (in use 13th to 16th cents).
11. Bundle of photostats. 35 items.